

City of Los Angeles
An American Philanthropy
The City of Los Angeles is proud to be a member of the American Philanthropy Society. The Society is a national organization that promotes the growth and development of the philanthropic sector. The City of Los Angeles is committed to supporting the work of the Society and to promoting the growth and development of the philanthropic sector in Los Angeles.

